Home: What's New Portlet

The what's new elements on the home page can act as unified announcement portlets. What's New items are categorized by Topic and then sorted by Date and then Title. Possible Categories are:

- Foundation News
- Upcoming Events
- Community News
- Press Releases & Bulletins
- Member Articles
- Eclipse Articles
- Project News

What's New Portlets can be lists of articles (length determined by the content manager) that can be published anywhere in the site.

Main elements for all what's new content include: author, title (document title), a body (main page content), a level (path), a brief description (teaser), a log date (date entered/modified), a publishing date (date displayed), a unique id, workflow status (active/in development), keywords (for search purposes), a display (layout)

What's New portlets are dynamically generated and automatically updated. They also provide and XML feed

Level 1: News Archive

This news archive lists all of the available news items within a category or mixed together and sorted by date.

The category could be filtered for a type on news item by selecting a category from the left navigation.

Breadcrumbs

On all pages other than the home page, a breadcrumb is integrated with the page titling to allow users to return to any point in the path they have followed. In this case "> Home" and "> News Archive" would be clickable (the later effectively refreshing the screen).

Links

&gt; About Us
&gt; The Eclipse Foundation &gt; The Eclipse Council
The Eclipse Council
As defined by the Eclipse Development Process, the open source projects are Eclipse are guided and co-ordinated by three Councils:
Requirements: The Requirements Council is responsible for capturing and organizing requirements for all of the projects in the Eclipse community. The Requirements Council reviews and categorizes all of these incoming requirements - from all residents of the Ecosystem - and proposes a coherent set of Themes and Priorities that will drive the Roadmap.
Planning: The Planning Council is responsible for establishing a coordinated Platform Release Plan that supports the Roadmap, and balances the many competing requirements. The Platform Release Plan describes the themes and priorities that focus these Releases, and orchestrates the dependencies among Project Plans.
Architecture: The Architecture Council is responsible for development, articulation and maintenance of the Eclipse Platform Architecture. The Architecture Council produces an Architecture Plan that describes the architecture changes required to achieve these themes and priorities, or required to maintain long-term architectural viability

&gt; Legal Resources &gt; Agreements &amp; Licenses
Guide to legal documentation for Eclipse-based content
Last updated: 27-05-2005
1.0 Who should read this document?
Committers or Contributors to Eclipse.org Projects
Reading this document will help you understand the legal documentation requirements of your project. While committers are ultimately responsible for ensuring that content in the Eclipse.org projects contains the appropriate legal documentation, it is always appreciated when contributors can deliver content that requires minimal work to be integrated into the codebase.
Redistributors of Eclipse.org content
Reading this document will help you choose whether you need to modify, remove, or add to any of the Eclipse.org legal documentation. You may be redistributing Eclipse.org content as part of your product.
Developers of Eclipse-based content or products
Even if you are not necessarily redistributing Eclipse.org content itself, reading this document will help you to determine whether or not you wish to adopt some or all of the described framework, for documenting your own content.
Users of Eclipse-based content or products
Reading this document will help you to locate the various legal notices and agreements that govern your use of the content.
2.0 What will this document explain?
In this document you will be introduced to the basic Eclipse.org legal documentation styles; Agreements, Abouts, Licenses and Notices. For each of these styles, we have provided a brief overview, some background information and instructions pertaining to where you can find them as well as where you should place them. After describing the framework used for legal documentation in Eclipse-based content, this document will explain how you should redistribute Eclipse.org content and will offer suggestions as to how you may wish to deal with the delivery of legal documentation when including non-Eclipse.org content in your product.....

Last Modified: 08-09-2004

The Eclipse Foundation makes available the Eclipse Update Manager ("Update Manager") for the purpose of allowing users to install software, documentation, information and/or other materials (collectively "Downloadable Features"). A Downloadable Feature is a bundle of Plug-ins and/or Fragments and related materials. This capability is provided with the intent of allowing users to extend and update the functionality of Eclipse-based products. Information about packaging Downloadable Features is available at ("Specification").

You may make a Downloadable Feature available on a web server ("Update Server") with the intent of allowing other parties to install the Downloadable Feature using the Update Manager. By providing a Downloadable Feature in such a manner and making it available in accordance with the Specification, you acknowledge your agreement to and grant all necessary rights to permit the following:

A series of actions may occur ("Update Process") in which a user may execute the Update Manager on a machine ("Target Machine") with the intent of extending and updating the functionality of an Eclipse-based product.

During the Update Process, the Update Manager may interact with your Update Server such that a Downloadable Feature or a portion thereof will be copied from your Update Server to the Target Machine ("Downloaded").....

Common Public License - v 1.0

THE ACCOMPANYING PROGRAM IS PROVIDED UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS COMMON PUBLIC LICENSE ("AGREEMENT"). ANY USE, REPRODUCTION OR DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROGRAM CONSTITUTES RECIPIENT'S ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT.

1. DEFINITIONS

"Contribution" means:

a) in the case of the initial Contributor, the initial code and documentation distributed under this Agreement, and

b) in the case of each subsequent Contributor:

i) changes to the Program, and ii) additions to the Program;

where such changes and/or additions to the Program originate from and are distributed by that particular Contributor.

A Contribution 'originates' from a Contributor if it was added to the Program by such Contributor itself or anyone acting on such Contributor's behalf. Contributions do not include additions to the Program which:

(i) are separate modules of software distributed in conjunction with the Program under ...

CPL to EPL Transition

Frequently Asked Questions

Last Modified: 26-08-2004

For informational purposes only

This FAQ provides answers to commonly asked questions related to the transition of Eclipse projects from the Common Public License version 1.0 to the Eclipse Public License \(EPL\). Details can be found in the CPL to EPL Transition Plan \(.pdf\). This FAQ is provided for informational purposes only. It is not part of, nor does it modify, amend, or supplement the terms of the CPL or EPL. The CPL and EPL are legal agreements that govern the rights granted to material licensed under it, so please read them carefully. This FAQ should not be regarded as legal advice. If you need legal advice, you must contact your own lawyer.

1. Why is the Eclipse Foundation changing licenses?

The EPL was written specifically for the Eclipse Foundation. First, it changes the Agreement Steward, formerly IBM for the CPL, to now be the Eclipse Foundation for the EPL. Second, it addresses concerns that some Eclipse Foundation members had with a clause in the CPL that deals with possible patent litigation. Many members and prospective members had concerns with this clause, and viewed it as overly broad. For more information on this please refer to the EPL FAQ.

2. Can you summarize the plan briefly?
